DIGEST OF CURATED TREASURES FOUND AT HABITAT FOR HUMANITY OF HORRY COUNTY
PRODUCED BY INTERIOR DESIGNERS, LAUREN RIDDEI + SUSAN SEAGROVES

FLOWER BUSINESS

If you've ever said "he loves me, he loves me not" while plucking daisy petals, you know of this flower's beauty. Cheerful and subtle in coloration, this giclée painting compliments a relaxed autumn vibe. It's hard not to smile!

ROCK ON

This early 20th century bentwood sculpted rocking chair harkens the iconic design of Michael Thonet. Brilliantly crafted ornate concentric circles, caning back and seat...and in perfect condition. Super charming!

BASKET CASE

Antique Makenge and Tonga woven wall baskets can be a rare and truly special find. Handmade from natural roots and palm fibers spun in fascinating hues and geometric patterns. Every basket is crafted with their own personality! Organic and timeless, naturally inspiring.
